

International Board of Electrodiagnosis 2009 Examination

The approximate scope of the examination will include the following:

Part I -- Two Written Examinations -- 100 multiple choice questions each

I. Anatomy -- 20%

a. Neuroanatomy

i. Central Nervous System

ii. Peripheral Nervous System

b. Anatomy

i. Muscular Anatomy

ii. Anatomical Landmarks, Regions, Structures, etc.

II. Neurophysiology -- 15%

III. Bioinstrumentation -- 5%

a. Gain/amplification

b. Filtration

c. Sweep speed

IV. General Clinical Neurology -- 10%

V. Pathology of the Peripheral Nervous System -- 20%

a. Infectious Polyneuropathy

b. Entrapment Neuropathy

c. Genetic Polyneuropathy

d. Demyelination & Wallerian Degeneration

e. Diabetic Neuropathy

VI. Electrodiagnostic Procedures/Technical Aspects of Performing -- 20%

a. NCS

b. F-waves

c. H-reflexes

d. EMG

e. Evoked Potentials

VII. Case Management -- 10%

a. Medical Issues

b. Legal Issues

c. Ethical Issues

d. Report Writing and Interpretation

Part II -- Practical Examination: OSCE Format